

Neighborhood Justice Fund Pre-Proposal Conference, Q & A, April 21, 2017, 1pm

Q: Can projects that were funded in the past by the NJF be done again?

A: Yes, as long the project serves to enhance the safety, livability and neighborhood cohesion of the district.

Q: Can a portion of the funds be used for salaries and stipends?

A: Yes, for project related functions.

Q: What types of projects are in the conflict resolution category?

A: Projects may take different forms, but objectives should promote dispute resolution, while fostering positive relationship and community building.

Q: What projects were funded last year?

A: Organization: Boys and Girls Club of San Francisco

Project: Community 5k Fun Run and Health Fair

Organization: Central American Resource Center

Project: Second Chance Youth Program

Organization: CommunityGrows

Project: Plaza East Patio & Community Garden Project

Organization: Fisherman's Wharf Community Benefit District

Project: PARK SMART! Auto Burglary Prevention and Education

Organization: Glide

Project: Photovoice Workshop on Human Trafficking

Organization: Gum Moon Women's Residence

Project: Human Trafficking Awareness and Education Campaign

Organization: Livable City/Sunday Streets

Project: Sunday Streets

Organization: Middle Polk Neighborhood Association

Project: Auto Burglary Prevention

Organization: Treasure Island YMCA

Project: Security Lighting

Organization: Urban Ed Academy

Project: Transition Camp

Q: How many proposals were submitted last year?

A: 34