Comprehensive Trauma-Informed Services

The SFDA's Victim Services Division provides comprehensive trauma-informed services to victim and survivors of human trafficking, including sex and labor trafficking and commercially sexually exploited children (CSEC).

As part of the prosecution team, advocates collaborate with local law enforcement agencies and city task force members to deliver effective victim-centered services.

Victim Advocacy

- ◆ Provide emotional support to victims, survivors, witnesses, and family members
- ◆ Disseminate information about services and resources for victims, including health, mental health, dental, and relocation services at the time of crisis or after the event
- ◆ Provide "Go Bags" with essential items, including a journal, clothing, toiletries, blanket, and reading material
- ◆ Support law enforcement operations, and provide assistance during hospital visits and in conducting multi-disciplinary interviews
- ◆ Emergency assistance with resources for shelter, food, clothing, and medication
- ◆ Orientation to the criminal justice system:
 - ◆ Information on victims' rights under Marsy's Law
 - ◆ Support during, and accompaniment to, court hearings
 - ◆ Assistance with victim impact statements
 - ◆ Guidance on completing restitution requests

California Victims Crime Compensation (CalVCB)

- ◆ Assist victims with completion and submission of the California Crime Compensation Application: www.victims.ca.gov
