About VSD

The Victim Services Division (VSD) of the San Francisco District Attorney’s Office strives to make the criminal justice system humane and accessible by providing support and assistance to victims and their families in the aftermath of a crime, during criminal prosecution, and after a verdict has been reached. Even if justice is served in the courtroom, it does not always immediately change the way victims feel in their day-to-day lives afterwards. VSD does everything it can to support victims, regardless of whether a case is charged or what happens in court.

A Crime Occurs
The District Attorney’s Office’s Victim Services Division (VSD) can assist victims of violent crimes (and eligible property crimes) regardless of whether an arrest was made.

Crime Reported to SFPD
When a crime is reported to the San Francisco Police Department, a Police Incident Report (PIR) will be sent to VSD.

Victim Advocate Assignment
After receiving the PIR, a Victim Advocate will be assigned to the victim(s) of the reported crime.

The VSD has advocates specially trained to handle Domestic Violence, CASA (Child Abuse / Sexual Assault) and Elder Abuse cases.

Contacting Victims
The assigned Victim Advocate will attempt to contact the victim within a 24-hr period. If unable to locate victim via phone or email, an outreach letter will be sent to the address listed on the incident report.

In the initial call/contact, victim advocate will:
- Conduct an assessment and make appropriate linkages.
- Provide case information and updates, if any.
- Discuss victim compensation.

If the case is charged
Victim Advocates will convey case updates to crime victims/survivors in accordance with their preferences.
- If the case is on for a motion to detain/release or possible resolution, the victim advocate will ask whether the crime victim/survivor would like to provide input.
- If the case is set for a sentencing hearing, the victim advocate will ask the crime victim/survivor whether they would like to provide a victim impact statement.

Other Available Resources
- In-court language support and court interpretation
- If a victim/survivor is called to testify, VSD can provide the following support if necessary:
  - arrange for taxi service
  - reserve a space for the victim to wait at the courthouse
  - Collaborate with community-based partners to support the crime victim/survivor before, during, and after the testimony
